Catholics And Politics

Catholics in Political Life. We speak as bishops, as teachers of the Catholic faith and of the moral law. We have the duty to teach about human life and dignity, marriage and family, war and peace, the needs of the poor and the demands of justice. Today we continue our efforts to teach on a uniquely important matter that has recently been a source of concern for Catholics and others.

Catholics in Political Life | USCCB

Catholic Action was the name of many groups of lay Catholics attempting to encourage Catholic influence on political society. Political changes in Spain during the second half of the nineteenth century led to the development of Catholic Integritism and Carlism struggling against a separation of church and state.
