Levant: Splendour and Catastrophe on the Mediterranean is a non-fiction book by Philip Mansel. The book discusses the development of the Levant region, with the cities of Alexandria, Beirut, and Smyrna being the primary three cities catalogued, with all three having perceived as declined by the time of the book's publication. According to Mansel, nationalism caused these cities to decline from their previous splendour. Noel Malcolm of The Daily Telegraph stated that in regards to the three citie

Readers of Cornucopia will be delighted with Philip Mansel's long-awaited return to the shores of the eastern Mediterranean, whose imperial capital he explored so brilliantly in Constantinople: City of the World's Desire. His latest book, Levant: Splendour and Catastrophe, focuses on three less imperial cities, with a sideways glance at Thessalonika: cities on the edge of the Ottoman Empire in which a hybrid society arose to channel trade.
