U.S. customers purchased 17,526 S60s in 2019, but the first half of 2020 saw Volvo unload just 4,799 units. That's a 43-percent decrease from the same period a year earlier. While the pandemic can take responsibility for much of the slide, the public's decreasing enthusiasm for any and all sedans can't be ruled out as a causal factor.
